Avondale Grammar School is a co-educational international school in Singapore serving the expat community. Currently, the school offers programmes based on the Australian National Curriculum and New South Wales Syllabi for students from Preschool to Year 8.

Applications are being sought for suitably qualified and interested relief teachers to replace teachers when on medical or other leave. We are looking for dedicated, passionate teachers who can deliver a caring, intellectually stimulating and personalised learning programme to our students. Applicants with the willingness to teach all subjects across Preschool to Year 8 are highly desirable.

Salary range: $300 per day

Applications for this position should be submitted to: recruitment@avondale.edu.sg
